The Saga, 1980 can be the best yearbook CLC has ever put out. . . if you want it to be.

In these first weeks of college you have already got memories of days you won't see again; memories that can be recorded by us, with your help.

We still have vacant spots on the yearbook staff. Positions in areas of Sports - Athletics, Clubs & Organisations, and Art & Literary content are still open. Enthusiasm, ideas, organisational abilities and commitment are important.

A Photography committee is desperately needed, and anyone willing to take on the responsibility of Chief photographer should talk to Sherida Deeprose in 124 Høyne.

Contributions should be addressed to the yearbook staff and slid under the office door, upstairs in the Convocation Centre.

A mini-seminar will be held to train all those interested. If there is sufficient interest with photographers, a seminar will be held for them also.

Meeting is tonight, Thursday at 6:15 in B1.

RODEO!

Some of the highlights of the Viking Rodeo included the banner competitions and the chicken fights. There were some really artistic banners out on Friday night and as for the chicken fights - what need we say?

The next movies in the Cinema CLC series will be held on Friday, Sept. 28, and another on Saturday, Oct. 13. The Students' Union is being secretive or something and we have not been able to find out what the movies are, but one can be sure they will 'entertain, titillate, and enrich'. You can still pick up your Movie Series Tickets at the Students' Union Office from 1 - 2 p.m. weekdays.

CLC

CREATIVITY
LEADERSHIP
PARTICIPATION
AWARENESS
PEOPLE

You've no doubt been wondering just what in the world was hanging down from the initials of our Students' Union. Is it utter nonsense? Something to rally the troops? Not according to our generalissimo Kevin Hildebo. Those five projections are actually five banners representing facets of the CLC community. From the left to right we have creativity, leadership, participation, awareness, and people. The flag centers, you will notice, on participation, and is flanked by creativity and people. There might be some symbolism in there, we think, but then again it's probably just a coincidence... The banners also represent the figurative hand each of us extends to the other in our daily lives. The direction of the hand might seem a little descending, until you consider what it would look like the other way around...

NORTH HALL FACELIFT PLANNED

D. Norton

In a few short weeks, North Hall will be transformed into a thing of great beauty. Plans are in the works to paint hallways, window sills and lounges, with special emphasis on the artistic renewal of the downstairs lounge.

The whole idea for the improvements came from a small group of students just before the start of the school year. They became more excited the more they planned, and they carried it to Paul Tornquist, the Hall's Residence Head. He in turn approached Dr. Mary Lee, Student Services Director, and the response was immediate and enthusiastic. We had a green light. Dr. Lee promised paint and material, all the students need to supply was the labour force free.

Paul brought this affirmation to the residents at a hall meeting and they responded well, with many volunteer workers. Cheryl Melnyk was appointed Artistic co-director with

You now have in your hand the first issue of the student paper, "The Daglitage". Oh no, you say, I saw one like this last week. Well, it was a clever imitation and a necessary imitation at that, but that was a production of the Students' Union rather than of the real "Dag". The new staff is not controlled by the Students' Union as a unit, even though a large amount of help and cooperation has (and hopefully will) come from that quarter.

Our staff is not yet full, so if you entertain any thoughts as far as writing for this proud function, you're in luck. We are still looking for a sports editor, a couple of regular writers, and a layout artist. Of course, whenever you feel like submitting something you are free to slip it under the door of our office.

OUR NAME: No, Dags do not chase cats, nor does the paper indulge in telling tales of people who drowned trying to say 'daylight'. The Hon. Dennis Hendriksen looked the word up early last year and found it to mean "The Daily News" in Norwegian. All right, we know we're a bi-weekly paper, but it makes as much sense as a college cheer that goes: "Fish, bread, thank you very much, Camrose College, yah, yah, yah!"

Matt Meyer, and together they will sketch the basic outline for the new murals on the walls of the downstairs lounge.

Cheryl talked about her job and the present state of North Hall. She stated that while a few of the wall paintings were all right, the majority of them would have to be replaced. She outlined some of her ideas: One of the designs will be a lake scene or seascape, another will be a broken-down granary on an empty prairie, and a third will be an abstract design working from nature.

Plans are also on the way to paint the hallways on the two upstairs floors something other than hospital or prison off-white. While that is going on, the window trim will be painted as well. There is also the possibility of designing something to paint on the walls of the "study lounges", rooms 111 and 211.

The North Hall Improvement Project is on its way!

"TUESDAYS AT NINE"

... is the name given to a weekly event at CLC, which begins on Sept. 18th (of all things, a Tuesday!), at nine o'clock naturally! (P.M. that is) "Tuesdays at Nine" is a hour spent in listening, discussing, and sharing ideas and concerns on a variety of topics from A to Z. The event is held in the chapel and is sponsored by the Committee on Christian Community. Here is the schedule of topics through October.

- Sept. 18: Leaving Home for the First Time
- Sept. 25: How to Deal with Stress
- Oct. 2: So you're a Christian? So what?!
- Oct. 9: The Bible: Myth, Magic, Misconception Or . . . ?
- Oct. 16: Mid-Terms
- Oct. 23: "Facking Your Own Chute" Being Responsible
- Oct. 30: The Occult: Trick or Treat?

Guest resource people will help us in our search and discovery in each of these areas. Everyone is invited to attend! Vespers follows the "Tuesday At Nine" program each week. The Vesper service begins at 10:15 p.m.

HOUSE ELECTIONS

Our house governments have only been in operation for a week and they should already be applauded. The Viking Rodeo went off with a BANG! So thanks, house leaders, for your quick organization and speedy take-over which made our first event a success.

We're confident that we have a very efficient, organized, super group of people to bring us through the year. And we know that you'd like to know who they are. The presidents are the part of the Student Council which meets every week. They are the house leaders and usually know what's going on, when!

Thor: Maureen Sprowl
Loki: Carmen Brown
Troll: Elaine Ward
Valhalla: Mike Walsh
Tyr: Scott Boulo
Odin: Greg Hall

The Vice-presidents are mainly spirit promoters. He/she will get your house moving.

Thor: Scott Kopperud
Loki: Chris Nicoll
Troll: Jon Eriksson
Valhalla: Ian Lundrigan
Tyr: Judy Hilson
Odin: Rhonda Tomaszecki

Our secretary-treasurers control the financial & book keeping end of the council and through advertising let you know what's happening.

Thor: ?
Loki: Carla Johnson
Troll: Audrey Plato
Valhalla: Diana Zoyeta
Tyr: Roger Miller
Odin: Terri Syniak

The social co-ordinators compose the Students' Union social committee. They'll be organising house to house events and activities.

Thor: Lorna Lavery
Loki: Sue Thompson
Troll: Paula Wilkening
Valhalla: Josie Rahim
Tyr: Elaine Mac Cleod
Odin: Lisa Davey

The Athletic reps. of your house are the people to see about intramurals. It's their job to let you know when you can put your teams together and get house points through inter-house sports.

Thor: Trevor Anhard
Loki: Ed Damselmen
Troll: Vern Holmgren & Melanie Reed
Valhalla: Victor Pederson & Kim Kirylchuk
Tyr: David Wright
Odin: Ian MacPhail & Angela Doody

The religious life reps. will be organizing activities that are devoted to lifting the spiritual aspect of our house families.

Thor: Lois Green
Loki: Wilford Klien
Troll: ?
Valhalla: Harold Rust
Tyr: Darryl Vion
Odin: Lynn Leonhardt

These people are your executive! Help them out -- give them suggestions, ideas -- work with them --and especially give them your support. You need them and they need you. We can all work together, and give it our best shot.

HOT FLASH!

It's going to be a fiery time on the ol' campus for a few nights this month. Dorm warnings, like the one last night in Solheim, will be held in each of the residences at eight p.m. as follows:

Roanoke -	Sept. 20
Marken -	" 23
Noi -	" 24
Hoyme -	" 25
North -	" 26

Be sure to take part!

Troll moves ahead by leaps and bounds! (?)

WHICH POSITION DO YOU PREFER?

No, this is not the punchline of a dirty joke. It is a call for those of you who haven't yet decided what to do this year to come out and do it! (sh?) You can still apply for the following positions:

Basketball and Volleyball

-Manager - Trainers, (for both Men's and Women's teams), Scorer, Timer, Ticket Sellers and Takers, and announcers.

Hockey - Equipment Manager and Team Reporter

Wrestling - Manager

Miscellaneous - General Sports Reporter, Weight Room Supervisor, Weekend Gym Supervisor, and a Poster Placer.

You might pick up some extra cash funds (from $50 - $300) while doing these as well as having a good time. Apply at the CLC Athletic Director's Office.

FRIGG HANSEN ***

Dear Frigg:

I have a real problem at nights, and it's driving me buggy. You see, my roommate and I both brought our own alarm clocks. I get terrible insomnia from the noise they make. Both clocks tick at different speeds. When mine ticks, her ticks and visa-versa. Please help me.

Sleep Makes Me Tick

Dear Sleep:

This problem has arisen many times with past CLC students. We have found the best solution is to offer the clocks their privacy. Place the clocks on a towel behind your toilet at night so they can tick all night without waking you.

* "Dear Frigg" will be a quasi-regular addition to the Dag. If you would like some advice from this heralded dame, please give your letter to Mrs. M. in the cafeteria.

RETREAT!

Step Forward For A Retreat--

A great week-end is in store for forty CLC students on Sept. 28 - 30 at Mulhurst Camp on beautiful Pigeon Lake! That's the date of our first retreat this year. Registration forms and full information will be available this week, so be watching . . . and step forward for a retreat!

Why Not You?

Note to all guys - the Boys Party for the Girls will be held first this year, on Nov. 23. Let's get things scheming, guys!

CHAPLAIN'S CHAT

A friend gave me a poem to read the other day, and I thought it would be a good one to share with you, especially as you feel yourself getting somewhat overwhelmed with everything that must be done. It's called COURAGE, and it was written by a young man of twenty-eight years who died of leukemia.

Courage isn't having the strenght to go on . . .
it's going on when you haven't got the strength.

Courage isn't going just where the light is . . .
it's following through the dark valleys.

Courage isn't being so big that you're not afraid . . .
it's still trying when you are afraid.

Courage isn't accepting yourself when you get a pat on the back . . .
it's accepting yourself when friends seem to turn away.

Courage isn't something that comes easily . . .
it's a motivation without inspiration.

Courage is . . .
standing with God amidst opposition without feeling very courageous.

Have a courageous week, in the name of Christ!

Pastor Jim
